REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not disclose plate heat exchangers having the tie sheet structure as claimed, including a first connection member including at least a first attachment of each of the tie sheets and at least a first beam, which extends in parallel with the extension plane outside the first end plate and engages the first attachment of each tie sheet, and method of manufacturing as claimed, including compressing the beams, end plates and plate package and attaching the tie sheets by moving the tie sheets towards the sides of the plate package in such a way that the first beam engages at least a first attachment of each of the two tie sheets and the second beam engages at least a second attachment of each of the two tie sheets.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Lonsdale, Newhall, Usher, Bohn, Mitsumoto et al, Grasso et al are cited to show plate heater assemblies and methods of making.
